Every now and then you come across something that just SCREAMS sophistication. Elegance. Class.

Um, no.

Now THAT's a little more like it! I was lucky enough to get a sample of a totally DIVINE snack food! Kitchen Table Bakers makes parmasean cheese crisps that are naturally gluten, wheat, and sugar free, because the only thing in them are flavorings and CHEESE.

Yep, that's right. Gorgeous, nutty, salty, aged parmasean cheese. This company just bakes them into fabulous cheese crackers...like Cheez-It's wealthy, beautiful Italian cousin Julietta.

When I opened the package of Everything Parmesan Crisps, the aroma hit me like...a bagel shop! Onions, garlic, and sesame seeds all wafted up towards me like I was walking into Ess A Bagel . When I leaned in closer, I could even detect that faint, nutty smell parmesean gives off.

As I held the little cracker in my hand, I could SEE all the nuts and spices in the delicately golden crisp, bubbly and crunchy from its' time in teh oven. At this moment, I began to wish that I hadn't told my friend Kevin he could have a taste. And when the crisp hit my lip...

Euphoria. Bliss. Nutty and salty cheese with sharp onion, meaty sesame and poppy seeds, and the faintest touch of garlic. The crunch of a cracker with the heft of a protein filled snack. Light yet filling. Well, they would have been light, except...

This happened. I don't know what happened, just that it did.

I'm sure Kevin ate most of them. Or, he would have if I hadn't have chick slapped him when he went back for thirds.

- These crackers are DELIGHTFUL, people! They are great on their own, and would also be fab:
- spread with cream cheese and topped with smoked salmon
 - served with spicy black bean and chipotle dip
 - crushed and used to coat chicken fingers
 - layered with goat cheese, roasted red pepper and salami

As you can see, this cracker goes easily from a night at home in front of the tv to a more elegant dinner party. And how many things can you say THAT about?!?!

these little buggers are FAB! The people who run the company are responsive and attentive, and-most of all-really AWESOME bakers. Order some today, and as you do, take a moment to enjoy my musical ode the them (sung to the tune of "hey big spender")
